Excerpt: . . . Six times already had the Voice spoken in the ears of S. John. Six messages had already been noted by the entranced Seer as they fell from the lips of that awful Form, which, on one Lords Day in olden times, was seen by the eyes of Faith and Love standing in glory over the Isle of Patmos. Never before--save in that similar vision of the Ancient of Days to the exile Prophet in Babylon (Daniel vii. )--had such Majesty been revealed to mortal gaze. Never again will it be seen till the Son of Man, in Figure incomparably grander than that of the starry giant of fancy, who climbs, as it were, each winter night, the southern sky, appears in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And you and I must behold Him, for Every eye shall see Him, and they also which pierced Him. You and I--God only knows how soon--must look on this same Jesus, eye to eye, and face to face. Do we all realize that fact We--each for himself or herself ( whom I shall see for myself and mine eyes shall behold, and not another)--we ourselves, ready or unready, forgiven or unforgiven, fit or unfit, must some day or other stand in the presence of Him, before Whom Sainly John, the hoary-headed Apostle, the well-beloved, the bosom friend of the Man Christ Jesus, fell at his feet as dead! Six Churches had been addressed. The...
