Excerpt: . cedures right under the eyes of the profession. It is most probable that more real good things have been forgotten or cast aside in medicine than it now, or at any one time, possesses. Respecting this Fucus vesiculosus and its use in goitre, I would like to add a few words. The drug is of variable quality. If one specimen fails to give satisfaction it ought to be discarded and another tried. The pharmacist must be importuned to make special efforts to give us an article that is not inert, but contains all the activity that belongs to the drug. Time is required for effecting a cure. This varies according to the age and size of the goitre. Three months may suffice for a small goitre of one year s growth. Six months may be required for one twice as large and of...
