Cardamom Publishers, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 236 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Today s children will reach adulthood in an economic environment unlike anything the world has ever seen. The 21st century global economy is powered by an increasing rate of technological change as well as growing foreign competition; both are contributing to the high U.S. unemployment rate and stagnating American wages. How can we as parents prepare our children for success in this growing maelstrom that many are now calling the new normal ?In Thriving in the 21st Century: Preparing Our Children for the New Economic Reality, Barbara Frank demonstrates that we must move beyond the common wisdom of the 20th century that emphasized a college diploma and lifelong employment with a large company as the only way to success. Instead, we need to set our children on a new path, one that will help them not just survive, but thrive in the 21st century.In this book, you ll learn: The Seven Strengths your child will need to prosper in the 21st century, why they re needed and how you can develop them in your childrenThe most efficient (and increasingly popular) way to give your child those Seven StrengthsWhy public education has failed to prepare our children for the 21st centuryHow we can help our children become the lifelong learners needed in a rapidly changing global economyThe surprising truth about today s colleges and universitiesHow economic change is affecting a variety of career areas, and which of them are projected to grow dramatically in the coming years. This book is packed with ideas and resources for raising our children to become adults who respond proactively when faced with economic challenges, and who can prosper during times of great...
