Excerpt: . . . will be simply haphazard clothes unless there be a Master Mind to chart the styles and a perfect organization to direct the tailoring processes step by step. HIGH ART Clothes are not haphazard garments. No style ever happens, into existence in our creative style shops. We take no hazards. HIGH ART styles are first thought out in the trained brains of our stylists--then wrought out with painstaking skill and care on paper--then brought out to perfection in the cloth. And the quality is always there! HIGH ART styles beckon invitingly to particular dressers rather than to careless guessers. We want your business on what we know as exemplified by what we show. New models, prepaid, for a postcard Strouse OI Brothers Baltimore--- Maryland Thomas Jefferson once said, If you want a thing done right do it yourself. Maybe! But how about letting the fellow do it who knows how to do it better than you The easiest man in the world to sell the first time may become the hardest the next time. But honest 1a-lue keeps his humor the same all the time. i 1: The man who zigzags is seldom straight. The merchant who studies his windows from across the street, soon finds more people passing in his door, and fewer passing by. i Easy Street is usually at the top of a hard hill. i i VVonder of whom Emerson wrote: What you are speaks so loud I cant hear what you...
