By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Broad Expanse of Lake Sebasticook: Newport, Maine To the many residents, past and present, of Newport, and to the multitude of visitors to this favored spot, our town needs no argument as to what nature has done in the way of natural advantages, or as to what man has accomplished in the developing and building of a public-spirited community. We recognize with a feeling of gratitude the fact that the town has been so well favored in its natural advantages, and we appreciate what has been done by man in the substantial progress that has been made since the early settlement of Newport. Much credit is due to those early pioneers for their courage and patient industry in the clearing of the primeval forests, the tilling of the soil and the building of comfortable homes for their families. From time to time during the first seventy-five years of the town s history industries were established, only to pass out of existence in one way or another. The lack of transportation facilities of the earlier...
