On reflection, it was deemed best not to retain the order there recommended. but to present an entirely new Order of Service. The family, being assembled in any convenient room of the dwelling, each member having a copy of this Order in hand, the service may be fully carried out as herein laid down, for the several seasons of the Church year. The form is fully printed, without abbreviation, in the first service for the first week in Advent. The observation and experience of the author have brought him to the conviction that, if ever family prayer is to be generally practiced in our families both in town and country, it must be offered whilst the members of the family, old and young, are sitting around the table at the morning or evening meal. Then they are necessarily together, but it is difficult to get them regularly together at any other time. The interruptions are so frequent when the time of family prayer is fixed at an hour either before or after the meal, and in another room of the dwelling, that the service, after having been for a short time irregularly held and often interfered with, is soon abandoned altogether. But when all are sitting at the table, and without changing the posture, it is not difficult to have family prayer. This little manual is specially prepared for use in this way. Let a copy be placed beside...
