

Canon Muratorianus: The Earliest Catalogue of the Books of the New Testament

By Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Those who have any acquaintance with modern researches into the history of the Canon of the New Testament, are well aware that a little before the middle of the last century, the learned Muratori, in collecting materials for his great work, Antiquitates Italicae Medii AEvi, discovered in the Ambrosian Library at Milan, a curious fragment written in barbarous Latin, which contained a list of books used in the early Church. This he gave to the world in the year 1740 at Milan, in the third volume of his work, where it formed a part of his forty-third Dissertation, On the State of Letters in Italy subsequent to the Incursion of the Barbarians down to the year of our Lord 1100. Of the MS. as he found it, Muratori has given a full and interesting account . It had been brought to the Ambrosian Library, with many other literary treasures, from the older convent of Bobbio, founded at the beginning of the seventh century, in the neighborhood of Pavia, by the Irish monk Columbanus. From the...
